MOTION Chair Mazza moved and Commissioner Hill seconded a motion nominating Chair Mazza to continue to serve as Chair of the Planning Commission.

The question was called and Commissioners Jennings, Smith, and Weil voted for Commissioner Jennings to serve as Chair of the Planning Commission, and Chair Mazza and Commissioner Hill voted for Commissioner Mazza to serve as Chair of the Planning Commission.

MOTION Chair Jennings moved and Commissioner Weil seconded a motion nominating Commissioner Weil to serve as Vice Chair of the Planning Commission.

MOTION Commissioner Mazza moved and Commissioner Hill seconded a motion nominating Commissioner Hill to serve as Vice Chair of the Planning Commission.

The question was called and Commissioners Smith and Weil and Chair Jennings voted for Commissioner Weil to serve as Vice Chair of the Planning Commission, and Commissioners Hill and Mazza voted for Commissioner Hill to serve as Vice Chair of the Planning Commission.

ITEM 2.A. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Patt Healy congratulated the newly appointed Planning Commissioners and stated it was important the Commission work to preserve the natural world and environment particularly Malibu and the Santa Monica Mountains. She stated property owners should be required to follow the Malibu Municipal Code.

Norman Haynie congratulated the newly appointed Planning Commissioners and thanked the Commission for its work and complimented City staff on its efforts and expertise. He indicated concern over the Initial Study that was required and delays that had occurred on the hotel project in which he was involved and requested any delays be avoided.

ITEM 2.B. COMMISSION / STAFF COMMENT

Commissioner Hill commented on the Commission process and stated he looked forward to being a part of the collaboration to serve the safety and interests of the public. He stated he would be strict but fair, respect the science and data, and expected that decisions would be made through science and facts.

In response to Commissioner Hill, Planning Director Mollica explained records were maintained in various forms, some of which had been digitized, and some paper files were stored offsite and would be digitized as time allowed. He stated misfiled records were often found as time went on. In addition, he stated the City was working toward coordinating reviews and approvals more efficiently utilizing a central database. He explained that the current manual plan stamping process was moving more toward an electronic approval stamping process.

In response to Commissioner Hill, Planning Director Mollica stated the City’s arborist had been working with Southern California Edison’s arborist to coordinate efforts during the tree trimming program.

In response to Commissioner Mazza, Assistant City Attorney Donegan explained staff was available to answer questions regarding Planning related items. Planning Director Mollica stated limitations on City staff time was primarily related to City Council’s inquiries or tasks to staff regarding issues not on the City’s workplan.

In response to Commissioner Mazza, Assistant City Attorney Donegan stated recusal criteria for Planning Commissioners would be examined on a case-by-case basis, as issues arose and be discussed with the subject Planning Commissioner to determine any relevance.

Commissioner Smith expressed gratitude for having been appointed to the Planning Commission. He stated that he felt he could do a good job to serve the community and was prepared to recuse himself as appropriate and turn down work that would pose a conflict of interest.

Vice Chair Weil stated connections that could posed a conflict of interest could be made public during disclosures to determine if recusal was necessary.

Commissioner Hill stated he was advised by the City Attorney’s office that it would be an inherent conflict of interest if he were to work within the City as an expediter and therefore would not be eligible to participate in both activities.
ITEM 3  CONSENT CALENDAR

Commissioner Mazza pulled Item No. 3.B.2. from the Consent Calendar.

MOTION Commissioner Mazza moved and Vice Chair Weil seconded a motion to approve the balance of the Consent Calendar.
