

Outreach Coordinator Weekly Update

April 12 – 16, 2021

Agoura Hills:

OC engaged A01. IND stated that he is planning on traveling to Florida in the Fall. IND mentioned having a court date next November. IND has not spoken of this prior to this engagement. OC to follow up with IND.

OC connected with JT Manwell, Public Safety Liaison, who informed OC that it appears someone is breaking into the bathroom at Chumash Park and starting a fire on the floor, possibly for warmth. OC to canvass the park and follow up with JT M.

OC engaged A03 who stated that he sold his old vehicle for cash and is currently making plans to travel north for work. OC to continue to follow up with IND.

OC connected with JT Manwell who informed OC that the city is changing the locks on the bathrooms at Chumash Park to deter IND from entering the facility.

OC canvassed Twin Oaks and Agoura Meadows shopping centers daily. No new contacts.

OC canvassed Agoura Rd., T.O. Blvd, and Lindero Canyon blvd several times this week. No new contacts.

OC located A04 at Lindero Canyon and Agoura Rd. OC gave IND new shoes and two pair of socks. .

OC attempted to locate A02 at YumYum Doughnuts. IND was not at the location.

Calabasas:

OC checked the Park and Ride twice daily this week. C01 was not at the location in the AM or PM. The area remains clean and clutter free.

OC canvassed The Commons, The Courtyard, and Civic Center several times this week. No contacts.

OC checked in with Michael McConville, Management Analyst, who informed OC that C01 was arrested over the weekend in the Hidden Hills area. IND may have been trespassing.

Hidden Hills:

OC checked with security at Long Valley Gate. No new contacts.

OC received a request from Kerry Kallman, City Manager, regarding a possible encampment near the intersection of Burbank Blvd and Valley Circle Blvd. OC checked the area and spoke to a resident who lives across the street who stated that he had contacted city sanitation regarding the mess. They are scheduled to clean the area on Friday April 16th. It does not appear to be an encampment, and is possibly a dumping site. OC to continue to check the area.

Malibu:

OC transported M03 to do laundry. Two individuals were a no show for laundry today.

OC engaged male, 50s. New contact, M07. IND returned to the area four days ago from Ohio. IND has been gone for a couple of years. IND is traveling with a small dog, Daisy. IND stated that he wants to buy a van with his stimulus money. OC to connect IND with TPC. OC discussed housing options with IND who is interested in permanent housing.

OC engaged M09 who was waiting to meet with TPC. IND has an appointment to complete his housing paperwork. IND stated that he has applied for housing in the past but did not use his voucher at that time.

OC engaged M07 who stated that he is not going to stay in Malibu. IND arrived last weekend and has resided in Malibu in the past. IND is considering purchasing a van. IND also stated that there are low income units that are available in Lake Tahoe. IND stated that there is a short wait period of a couple of weeks. OC transported IND to N. Hollywood Greyhound.

OC and SD checked the encampment across from Moonshadows Restaurant. It appears that the area has been abandoned. There is no sign of recent activity and the camp remains in the same condition as OC's previous inspection. OC updated Susan Duenas, Public Safety Manager.
