Malibu City Council Swears In New Mayor and Mayor Pro Tem

(Malibu, CA) – Malibu Mayor Pro Tem Rick Mullen was sworn in as Mayor during the City Council meeting on Monday, February 12. Mayor Mullen had his oath of office administered by his wife Jennifer, as his children Marshall and Tatiana stood by.

“I look forward to serving the people of Malibu in our collective efforts to keep our town the wonderful place it is,” Mayor Mullen said.

Councilmember Jefferson “Zuma Jay” Wagner was sworn in as Mayor Pro Tem. Wagner’s oath of office was administered by his daughter Ava and Public Safety Commissioner Tracy Wright.

The Councilmembers thanked outgoing Mayor Peak for his leadership and achievements during his term working for the interests of the community and championing environmental protection.
