City council makes the interviews and related documents from report of the investigation into allegations of city corruption available to the public

(Malibu, CA) – On December 10, 2021, Lawyers Evan Jenness and George Newhouse, who were hired by the Malibu City Council to investigate allegations of City corruption in the Wagner Affidavit, submitted to the City Council an appendix of interviews and related documents from their report of the findings of the investigation. At the direction of the City Council, the documents were redacted only to remove personal identity information of witnesses. The City does not endorse the contents of any report, has not independently verified the facts contained in any report, and was not responsible for any of the redactions contained in the report. The documents are posted on the City website for review, together with the report, at <https://www.malibucity.org/CivicAlerts.aspx?AID=1386>.
