Malibu City Council Makes Findings From Investigation Into Harassment Allegations Public

(Malibu, CA) – The Malibu City Council has waived its attorney-client privilege and made publicly available the findings from the independent investigation into allegations of harassment made by former City Manager Reva Feldman against Mayor Pro Tem Bruce Silverstein. The links to the report of the findings of the investigation, the letter to the City Attorney informing them of the findings, and the City Attorney’s memo to the City Council are posted on the City website at www.MalibuCity.org/FeldmanAllegationReport.
